RTÉjr is interested in commissioning original character-centered, script-based content for its young audience. We are looking for stories based in fantasy world or real world or both. Stories that encourage exploration, creativity and inspire. Let your imaginations go wild! We are always keen to support and grow new talent and ideas built around female comedians/entertainers are of particular interest. Preferably long-running series (minimum 10 episodes) and episodes should be short in duration.

We ask, in the first instance, that producers submit ideas into the eCommissioning system <https://e-commissioning.rte.ie/SWIFT.Web/skins/rte/login.aspx> system under the programme category Young Peoples “Scripted Short Form”.
